

Town of Dekorra, Wisconsin
Agreement for Reimbursement for Development Review Services

The Town Engineer, Town Planner, Town Attorney, and other staff and consultants of the Town of Dekorra may expend time in the administration, investigation, and processing of land development review applications. In addition, the Town may retain the services of other professional consultants—including but not limited to landscape architects, architects, environmental specialists, and recreation specialists—in the investigation and processing of such applications.

The signing and submittal of this application or petition for development review shall be construed as an agreement to pay for professional consulting services associated with the administration, investigation, and processing of this application or petition. The Town Chairman, Town Plan Commission Chairman, or their designees shall retain sole discretion in determining when and to what extent it is necessary to involve one or more professional consultants in the review of each application or petition.

The undersigned development review applicant shall be responsible for the costs for such professional consulting services. Where Escrow Accounts are required per Section 1.04 of the Town of Dekorra Code of Ordinances, applicant shall comply with the requirements of said Ordinance. Where Escrow Accounts are not required, the applicant shall pay such costs upon receipt of any invoices from the Town of Dekorra, following the execution of the development review services associated with the application. In the event the applicant fails to pay such costs, the responsibility shall pass to the property owner, if different, under the same terms. Development review fees that are required to be paid by the applicant or property owner, but that are not actually paid shall then be imposed by the Town as a special charge pursuant to Wis. Stats. §66.0627 on the property that is the subject of the development review.
